

Description

Simple warm-up drill

First player in line skates around the circle receives a pass from the second player. Immediately gives it back to the second player. Skates around the circle and receives a second pass and goes in for a shot.

After the shot go to the far corner and wait. Drill starts on the opposite side after all the players have gone.

Key points:

