

Description

Play is 3x2 in the offensive zone. Third player from defensive team must stay outside the half line.

On a turnover the shorthanded team can pass to the player at the half line and the new defensive team must transition quickly back to defend.

One player must always stay behind the half line when his team is on defense.

The player at the half line must stay near the half line not deep near the goaltender.

Key points:
